THE VIEW FROM THE VILLA

In 1855 Wagner's patron Otto Wesendonck and his wife Mathilde built a sumptuous villa overlooking Zurich. Two years later they bought the house next door, inviting Wagner and his wife to move in. The Wagners were at one another's throats. Mathilde was young, beautiful and highly intelligent. What could possibly go wrong? A new music theatre piece created by Iain Burnside specially for the 2018 Summer Festival, with Susan Bickley, Victoria Newlyn and Matthew Brook.
