Conductor Ryan Wigglesworth

Soloists Sophie Bevan, Mark Padmore, Matthew Brook

Josef Haydn's final great masterpiece. One of the most life-affirming works in the entire choral repertoire written by the most genial, generous and humorous composer of them all.

TUESDAY 2 AUGUST

Opera performance 7.30pm

Dedicated to the memory of Pamela Helen Stephen

BRITTEN Peter Grimes

Many people still remember and talk about the 2008 performances of Peter Grimes at St Endellion in what proved to be Richard Hickox's final Festival. Grimes seems to many of us to be the ultimate St Endellion opera with its stirring Sea Interludes, rousing choruses and a brilliantly imagined cast of characters. Mark Padmore sings the title role with Sophie Bevan as Ellen and Roderick Williams as Balstrode. Ryan Wigglesworth conducts and Rory Kinnear directs. Absolutely not to be missed.

WEDNESDAY 3 AUGUST

Showcase Concert 5.00pm

An opportunity to hear the wonderful talent of our younger singers and players including a newly-composed work by Maddy Aldis-Evans.

Orchestral Concert 7.30pm
